Lois Enquist Runs
As WAA, Sigma Psi
Queen Candidate

Lois Enquist

Lois Enquist, attractive young senior, is a candidate for Homecoming queen under the sponsorship of the Women's Athletic association (WAA) and Sigma Psi Gamma. She is a physical education major and is minoring in history.

Miss Enquist is active in the Women's Athletic Association, and her school spirit is echoed in her participation in the activities of the Barkers. She is also a member of Sigma Psi Gamma and the University association for physical education.

Statistically speaking, Miss Enquist is five feet seven and one-half inches tall, has blue eyes, and honey-colored hair.

Emphasizing Nominee's Record

Guild Sponsors Marilyn Nelson

The University Guild Players have announced their support of the candidacy of Marilyn Nelson for Homecoming queen. Miss Nelson, five feet five inches in height, is a history major, and is known for her extensive participation in school affairs.

Her sponsors boast of the long list of offices that the senior brunette has held since she first arrived on the campus. She was secretary of her freshman, sophomore, and junior classes. She also held the position of secretary of the Guild Players and the Discussion club during her sophomore year.

In her junior year at UMD, she was secretary of the Woman's club and was elected president of the Discussion club. This year, Miss Nelson holds the office of president of Kappa Delta Pi.

The queen candidate was a member of the student council during her first three years on the campus and a

Nortondale Is Building Site

Work on the new science building has begun.

Approximately 60 persons were on hand to witness the breaking of the ground for the building last Tuesday, Oct. 19, at 11:30 a. m. The building is the first one to be built on the new Nortondale tract of land.

Members of the original Citizens committee who worked on getting the transfer from DSTC to UMD, as well as Richard L. Griggs, Regent of the University of Minnesota; members of the State legislature; some faculty members; some UMD students; and businessmen from various organizations in Duluth, were on hand for the ceremony.

This unit will contain laboratories and class rooms for instruction in physics, chemistry, botany, and biology. It will contain several staff offices.

Three Duluth firms won four contracts amounting to $448,679 for the structure. Hedenberg & Co. is the general contractor; Martin Wold Co. will install plumbing, heating, and ventilating and take care of outside utilities; and Commercial Electric Co. will do the electrical work.

This building, the total cost of which will be $600,000, is to be finished by Sept. 15, 1949. It will be ready for the opening of the Fall quarter of that year.

A request for more funds for two more units to complete the building will be submitted to the 1949 legislature.

Dr. Raymond C. Gibson,

provost, in an informal talk to the group, thanked the members of the committee, the legislature, Mr. Griggs, students, and others for their cooperation. He stressed that this was one of the most significant things that has happened in Duluth.

In a written statement Dr. Gibson pointed out that of Minnesota's seven institutions of higher learning, UMD is second in enrollment only to the University of Minnesota, Minneapolis.

Two Torrance Girls Enter Queen Contest

Two belles of the campus, Alice Anderson and Rosemary Brandon, have been entered in the race for Homecoming queen.

Alice Anderson, a pretty junior, is the Homecoming queen choice of the Buckhorns, Delta Beta Gamma, and Sigma Alpha Iota.

YRL Selects New Officers

Richard Graving was elected chairman of the UMD Young Republican league at a meeting Wednesday, Oct. 13.

Other officers chosen were Earl Gustafson, vice chairman; Mary Rae Hanson, secretary; and Richard Bardon, treasurer.

Elected to the executive committee were Don Ames, William Bartig, Don Clark, Beverly Johnson, John Mayberry, and Dolores Tuura. Clark was appointed program chairman and Charles Fish and Jean Worrall were selected as co-chairmen of the social committee.

Dr. Gerhard von Glahn is the temporary adviser.

Three Groups Back Jeanne Peterson

Pretty and vivacious Jeanne Peterson is the Homecoming queen candidate sponsored by the Chronicle, Mu Delta Pi, and the Newman Club.

A graduate of Duluth Central, this brown-eyed brunette is now a sophomore at UMD.

Miss Peterson, five feet four inches in height, is majoring in physical education and minoring in German.

She is active in the Women's Athletic association. Miss Peterson is also a member of the University association for physical education, Barkers, and Sigma Psi Gamma.

An all-around girl, she is especially fond of golf, skiing, swimming, and tennis, having participated in the first Annual Twin Ports College Tennis Tournament sponsored by the UMD STATESMAN last Spring.

In the line of spectator sports Miss Peterson is an avid basketball and football fan. Her enthusiasm might be traced to the fact that her father, Lloyd Peterson, is UMD's athletic director and football coach.

Torrance Initiates Newcomers In 'Reign of Terror'

Thursday, Oct. 14, marked the beginning of a twenty-four hour reign of terror inflicted on freshmen and newcomers to Torrance Hall. The hazing period officially opened at 6:30 a. m. when some 40 initiates were herded from their beds onto the lawn where they did calisthenics in their pajamas. They were released when the senior whipcrackers began to suffer from severe chilblains.

Breakfast time found the victims clad in costumes which consisted mainly of shorts, T-shirts, and rolled hose, modestly covered by olive-drab blankets. Hair styles were unanimously a la scrubwoman. Vicks Vapo Rub served as the cosmetic of the day.

As during all good initiations, the freshmen bussed trays for the upperclassmen. Only knives were used in eating operations, which were conducted while standing.

Two radical freshmen non-conformists who did not "participate" in the activities so thoughtfully planned for them probably spent the entire next day restoring their room to normalcy after the upperclassmen made an attempt at restoring amiability by throwing a party for their weary dorm-mates.

Rangers Choose Miss McCann

The Rangers, an organization of students from the Iron Range, has voted to back Kathleen McCann as its candidate for Homecoming queen.

All organizations received word of the deadline time for turning in pictures and information about queen candidates to the UMD STATESMAN, Jack Powers, queen contest chairman, announced.

Miss Anderson is a typical college coed. She enjoys the out of doors and is active in many school organizations. She is a resident of Torrance Hall.

President of Delta Gamma, Miss Anderson is also a member of the Buckhorns and the university choir. The blond music major and English minor is five feet six and one-half inches tall. She is a graduate of Rochester (Minn.) high school.

Miss Brandon, a third quarter sophomore, graduated from the Hibbing high school and spent two years studying commercial art and fashion illustration at the Chicago Academy of the Fine Arts, where she graduated in 1947.

She is a member of Kappa Pi, art fraternity, the Rangers club, Sigma Psi Gamma, and the University Guild Players.

Growing University Stages Second Homecoming Fete

Next week the second annual UMD Homecoming will break loose in Duluth. The city will witness tangible evidence of the fact that it has a growing university in its midst.

The responsibility for the success of this undertaking, greater in scope than ever before, is squarely in the lap of the student body. Campus organizations must cooperate to the maximum degree to the end of putting the Homecoming celebration over.

The friendly but intense rivalry seen in the queen and float contests is indeed a healthy situation. Competition of this type is conducive to the raising of the level of school spirit and loyalty.

DSTC and UMD alumni will return to see their alma mater a vastly changed institution. They will marvel at the building renovations, record-breaking enrollment, and expanded curricula. These graduates have proved in the past and continue to give evidence that they did not lose interest in their college when they stepped off the commencement platform.

Credit for the biggest and best Homecoming in the history of this institution should be given to Chairman Dale Nelson and his able committee, the student organizations which are cooperating in the various events, and the administration which has lent its full support to the well-rounded program.

Rise Stevens Charms Duluth Audience

One of the great voices of the day was presented to Duluthians when Miss Rise Stevens, scintillating diva of the Metropolitan Opera Association appeared Thursday, Oct. 14 in the Duluth Armory before a capacity house. Miss

Who's Your Choice for Homecoming Queen? Poll Shows Rivalry

Ten days before the campaign for Homecoming queen was due to be raging at full tilt, STATESMAN representatives polled 190 typical UMD students. The question asked was, "Who is your choice for Homecoming queen?" Results show Jeanne Peterson leading a parade of six comely candidates for the regal honor.

Jeanne was favored by 31% of those interviewed. Rosemary Brandon, sponsored by Torrance Hall, ran a fair second with 22% of the voters. Closely following the leaders were Marilyn Nelson (19%), Lois Enquist (12%), Alice Anderson (10%), and Kathleen McCann (6%).

This sampling of student opinion covers approximately 10% of the university population. The number of members of each of the four classes interviewed is proportionate to the class' size in ratio to the total UMD enrollment.

Sponsors of Jeanne Peterson are hopeful that the trend which gave Jeanne a commanding lead among the freshmen will prevail. Among the sophomores, Jeanne also maintained a plurality over second place Rosemary Brandon. Rosemary won the junior vote, poll was taken. Any candidate for queen honors whose nomination was not submitted to Homecoming queen contest chairman, Jack Powers, on or before Friday, Oct. 15, could

Bus Fares Scored

Dear Editor,

In regard to the recent proposition of a rate increase in bus fares, the STATESMAN could be of great assistance in uniting the students' efforts to fight the plan.

Bus cards permitting nickel fares are now obtainable in the student personnel office, but only for those students under 19 years. What about the others? For instance, a veteran living on the government allowance of $75 a month, or any self-supporting student, could not afford the increased

Campus Profiles

Joe Aubin

If you see a good-looking, energetic senior selling books with great rapidity in the UMD bookstore, you're looking at Joe Aubin, one of the busiest young men on the campus.

In spite of his part time bookstore job, Joe has found time to become a tennis letterman with two years varsity competition.

A social studies major and a speech minor, Joe is vice president of the senior class and the Newman club, bonfire chairman for Homecoming, and is active in the Theater Guild and Discussion club.

On top of this heavy schedule he finds time to do practice teaching at East Junior high school.

Joe also held the office of trustee of the DFL club and served on the junior class committee for the prom.

Out on a Political Limb

With Harvey Albond

With apologies to Drew Pearson, here are a few predictions of things to come in the coming election. Eleven more days and fifty million voters will troop to the polls to elect a new president, Thomas Dewey. Meanwhile the Democrats will pull a quarterback sneak to score a senate victory garnering four or five GOP seats while losing one of their own. House strength will remain solidly Republican and thus we find a victorious Dewey facing a divided congress.

In local politics, my little crystal ball predicts a victory for Humphrey over Joe Ball in the Minnesota senatorial race. The margin may reach 60,000 votes but don't bet on it.

The hottest race of all is the Eighth congressional district between John Blatnik and Bill Berlin. The crucial area is the Iron Range where the vote will be decided. If Berlin reaches a 10,000 vote plurality in Duluth, he's in. Otherwise Blatnik's stout labor backing will pull him through. Hanging out on a limb, I forecast Blatnik's re-election.

A majority of Americans will not vote in the coming election. This is an unhealthy sign for democracy. "In God We Trust." We may well need to!

Stevens, the first artist featured on the Winter Theatre series, sent the season officially on its way with the great and familiar works of Handel, Massenet, Bizet, and many other noted composers.

Miss Stevens asked the audience if they wouldn't like having the lights turned up for the remainder of the evening, as she wanted to allow the listeners to read their programs with ease.

The great mezzo-soprano displayed supreme artistry and returned to the stage frequently with encores. Beautifully conspicuous was the execution of her hands which fairly spoke the meaning of her songs, whether it be the exquisite spiritual, "Were You There", or the taunting "Habanera" from "Carmen".

This was the mezzo-soprano's first appearance in Duluth. In a press interview, she revealed that she intends to go abroad next summer on a concert tour. When asked if she still suffers from stage fright, she replied, "Oh, we all experience a little stage fright just before a concert." It has been rumored that an opera singer indulges in light diet before a performance. Miss Stevens related that she had a thick, juicy steak about three and a half hours before she went on the stage.

Miss Stevens, whose first name is pronounced 'Ree-suh', Norwegian for laughter, was here too short a time. When she said her farewell, she announced that she was leaving that night for New York City to join her husband and her four-year-old son. Her unforgettable performance will remain in the hearts of the people of Duluth for a long time.

Council Adopts Constitution

The new student council constitution was formally adopted by the student body of UMD at a convocation Oct. 13 at 10:00 a. m., conducted by Bruce Warren, the council president.

Representation will be larger than under the old constitution with one delegate from each club with a membership of 20 or more, and the president of each class holding a position.

The new constitution provides that the president of the body should be elected by the entire student body. Warren stated that the election will be held shortly.

Copies of the constitution may be obtained in the student personnel office.

Freshmen Choose Officers at Convo

Ben Finch was elected president of the freshman class at a meeting held in the auditorium Monday, Oct. 18. Burton Johnson won the vice-presidential office. Both Finch and Johnson are graduates of Duluth Central high school.

Fredrick Weddel, Two Harbors, was elected secretary-treasurer.

Humphrey Speaks On Campus

Mayor Hubert H. Humphrey, DFL right wing candidate for United States senator from Minnesota, spoke before a group of students on Washburn lawn, Oct. 11.

Humphrey ridiculed the idea put forth by incumbent Senator Joseph H. Ball that "that government governs best which governs least".

When asked by a STATESMAN reporter about his alleged support of the "Draft Eisenhower-Douglas" movement as an official of the Americans for Democratic Action previous to the Democratic convention, Humphrey retorted that he had constantly supported Truman and that the reporter "had read too many newspapers".

Basnik Heads Klub Koed Plans

Chuck Basnik has been elected decorations chairman for the Klub Koed's next dance, the "Sport Dance," to be held at the YMCA Friday, Oct. 29.

Officials of the committee disclosed that Ken Bruce and his WEBC orchestra will furnish the music. For intermission, a fifteen minute floor show is being planned.

Alumni Group Elects Officers

Newly elected officers of the UMD Alumni association for 1948-49 are Howard Alaspa, president; Beverly Buehring, vice president; Myrle Wagner, secretary-treasurer; and Roy Teppen, director, Bohannon Fund.

William McGonagle '48 is studying museum administration at the Museum of Fine Arts in Buffalo, N. Y. Among the seven in Bill's class are an Egyptian, a Chinese, and a museum curator from Oslo, Norway.

Air Guard Openings Still Available

There are still openings for men in the Minnesota Air National Guard of Duluth in such jobs as crewchief, armament, ordnance, radio, operator, mechanics, and ROM's and oxygen men. Men with previous experience in maintenance on F-51's (P-51's) are preferred but men with any previous experience in aircraft, service or otherwise, are needed. F-51 pilots are also in demand. Those interested in joining are urged to attend the meetings of the 179th Fighter Guard at the Duluth Armory Wednesday nights at 8:00 p. m.

Young Democrats Elect Kennedy As Chairman

The Young Democratic-Farmer Labor club elected Donald Kennedy its chairman at a meeting Oct. 15.

Other officers include Bob Lavin, vice chairman; Mabel Schauland, secretary; and Marian Campaign, treasurer.

John Moriarity and Edward Hakkarainen spoke on the DFL party and candidates Truman, Barkley, Humphrey, and Blatnik.

Duluth is included on the midwest concert tour of the noted American baritone, Nelson Eddy. Jay Lurye's Winter Theatre will present Mr. Eddy Oct. 27 at the Duluth Armory as the second attraction of the Winter Theatre series.

Nelson Eddy is primarily known for his success in operettas on the screen. This feat had not been accomplished before his appearance on the screen in "Naughty Marietta" in 1935. The production received such acclaim, that other operettas followed. The movies included "The Chocolate Soldier", "Desert Song", "Show Boat", and others.

Mr. Eddy's program in Duluth will include such classics as "No Prophet, I", "At Night" and "The Moon Is High in the Sky" by Rachmaninoff, "Colomba and Tortorella" from "The Magic Flute" by Mozart and other numbers. He will be accompanied at the piano by Mr. Theodore Paxson.

While Mr. Eddy prepares for another portion of the program, Mr. Paxson will play three popular Chopin numbers, "Grande Valse Brillante", "Etude in A Flat, Op. 25 No. 1", and "Scherzo in C Sharp Minor, Op. 39".

A particularly novel part of the program will be Mr. Eddy's inclusion of his encores throughout the program rather than at the close of his performance. His encores will consist of excerpts from operettas for which he is famous. Such excerpts will include songs from "Rose Marie", "Sweethearts", "Let Freedom Ring", "Girl of the Golden West", "Rosalie", and "Northwest Outpost", his latest movie.

Bookstore Will Handle Quarterlies

UMD students are eligible to write for the Minnesota Quarterly, Dr. C. N. Saltus, chairman of the division of languages and literature, announced today. The quarterly is a new student literary magazine published on the Minneapolis campus.

Copies will be available in the bookstore later this quarter. Interested students may check there if they wish to look over the Fall edition.

DOWN THE

SIDELINES

with ROY H. MAKI

The Bulldogs really looked good against a reputedly strong Bemidji team. After all, hadn't the Beavers defeated North Dakota State and held Superior State to a mere two touchdowns? The Beavers looked plenty big enough to this reporter, and they still had all-conference back Ray Simonson who, incidentally, scored against UMD last year with a pair of sensational runs. Simonson was stopped cold by the UMD line which outcharged and outfought an equally beefy Bemidji line.

Bemidji was unable to muster up a single first down in the first half of play which saw the Bulldogs rush up and down the field with aggravating ease. Personally we were disappointed to see Bemidji put up nothing more than token resistance to the UMD line thrusts. The Beavers tackled poorly and their backs ran as if they were sloshing through molasses. In contrast, the Bulldog backs dynamited through the Beaver line with power drives that threatened to knock the hapless Bemidji eleven out of the stadium.

When it comes to singling out UMD's most outstanding back that afternoon, we can't help but give the nod to Fred Murphy. He drove like a tank through the Bemidji line all afternoon. In the line, glue-fingered Leon Kasmir, UMD's pass-grabbing ace, showed the way.

We wish to take exception to the remarks made by "Eager Sportsman" in our first issue of the STATESMAN. Despite opinion to the contrary, a UMD-Jaycee rivalry is neither feasible nor practical. We already have a natural rival in Superior State college (a four-year college, by the way). Superior State and UMD have consistently produced strong teams while only recently has Jaycee faintly resembled anything that passes for a football team.

Mankato will bring a big, fast team to Duluth when they tangle with the Bulldogs Oct. 30 in UMD's Homecoming game. Fourteen lettermen grace the roster of the Indians and the line averages 191 pounds while the backs average 182. This should be the best college game of the year in Duluth, bar none.

Bulldogs Crush

Weak Beavers, 32-6

By John Parkinson

The University of Minnesota, Duluth branch Bulldogs succeeded in keeping their conference slate a lily white when they hung a 32-6 pasting on a crippled, lighter Bemidji State eleven at Ordean field Saturday before a shivering, wind-harried 1,000 fans.

Bob Galinski started the scoring and Jack Coons finished it with Solon, Kasmir, Murphy and Lee furnishing tallies in between. The only Bemidji score came airmail in the final minutes of the game.

Galinski scored the first TD on a 20-yard race for the coffin corner, but the extra point try fizzled when the pass from center was fumbled.

Harv Solon plunged over from the three in the second quarter to culminate a 65-yard drive. A short while later Duluth took over on the mid-field stripe and ultimately scored on a pass from Galinski to Leon Kasmir.

The Duluthians rolled down the field again in the final quarter after Ed Hill intercepted a Bemidji pass and Fred Murphy scored from eight yards out. Gustafson passed to Solon for the point. The Bulldogs, capitalizing on the breaks, converted an Ole Lee-recovered fumble into an Ole Lee-scored touchdown when the subs pushed the ball 50 yards down the field.

Smarting from last week's close 6-0 licking at the hands of Moorhead teachers, a determined band of St. Cloud Huskies invade Ordean field tomorrow to attempt to upset UMD's plans to go into the Homecoming Mankato game undefeated in league play. As it stands the UMD-Mankato game should just about decide who will nail down the league championship. Moorhead likewise is still in the running, and the winner of the UMD-Mankato game will probably have to settle with them for the title.

The Huskies are not to be taken lightly even though their season's record shows three losses against a pair of wins. They won their opener against Manitoba, 27-0, lost to St. John's, 14-0 and to Mankato, 8-0. The Huskies then dumped Winona, 13-0 and last week lost to Moorhead, 6-0. Directing coach Eddie Colletti's T-formation offense is veteran quarterback Russ Hadden. Don Rehkamp along with diminutive Lou Weitzel, a 5 foot 6 inch 145 pound scat-back, provide the backfield with plenty of speed.

Among the Range prep stars now with the Huskies are John Partanen, fullback, from Virginia; Harvey Maki, tackle, from Buhl; Puzel and Banks a couple of linemen from Ely. The Husky line averages 188 pounds from end to end.

Next week Coach Jim Clark will bring his powerful Mankato Indians, spearheaded by hard-running Walt Mick, to supply the opposition in UMD's Homecoming classic. Mankato owns a 16-0 win over St. Mary's.

Minnesota Bees

Sting UMD, 26-0

A fighting UMD eleven, playing out of their class, lost a non-conference tussle to a highly favored Minnesota 'B' squad to the tune of 26-0 in a game played at Northrup Field in Minneapolis, Oct. 8.

The Minnesota Bombers, scoring in every quarter, rolled to three touchdowns on long runs and one through the air.

The Bulldogs struck fast in the opening minutes of play to score on a 31 yard aerial from halfback Bob Galinski to end Rudie Brandstrom, but the play was nullified as a result of a pushing penalty on the Bulldogs.

Again the Bulldogs displayed a decided lack of backfield speed as speedy Whitey Languin raced to two touchdowns in the opening half.

In pursuance of its stated objective, the STATESMAN has added a new service to its columns—a classified ad section. The reasonable rates are: 1 line, 20c; 3 lines, 50c; 5 lines, 80c. Additional information may be obtained in the Statesman office, 32 Washburn Hall.
